NARRATIVE:

Justin Box has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include battery, possession of controlled substances, passing false checks, petty theft, possession of dangerous weapons, burglary, false personation of another, possession of burglary tools, forgery, carrying concealed dirk/dagger, and grand theft. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 3 year term for forgery. Box was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 12, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Box qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offenses for forgery is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
